The Aesthetics of Silence

The dignified afternoon of those who set down the sword for the soil.

HOSTED BY SATOYAMA SOMMELIER — BORN OF THE 24 MICRO-SEASONS

II · THE EXPERIENCE

Harakata — warrior-farmers who laid down their swords for the land. Their aesthetic of silence is the inheritance of this afternoon. In a private reception room, an arrangement of wildflowers, or a simple tea ritual, opens the practice of ma — the meaningful pause. The meal that follows is composed for contemplation, not display.
